DEPARTMENT OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT

(LOCAL GOVERNMENT-III BRANCH)

NOTIFICATION

The 7th February, 2017

No.10/1/2017-5PP3/406.-The following bye-laws made by the Nagar Panchayat, Mamdot in the district of Ferozepur under section 31(2) sub-section (i) of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911 having been approved as required by sub-section 31(2) of the said Act, by the Additional Chief Secretary, Local Government, Punjab, Chandigarh are hereby published for the general information. These shall come into force with immediate effect.

BYE-LAWSI. Time and place of meeting:-

1. (a) Ordinary or special meeting of the Nagar Panchayat shall be held on such date, hours and place as may be fixed by the President or in his absence by the Vice-President. Provided that when there is neither a President nor Vice-President, the Executive Officer may convene a meeting at time or place for the election of President or Vice-President but not for the transaction of any other business.

(b) An ordinary or special meeting of the Nagar Panchayat shall be held at least once in a month:

Provided that the notice of not less than 48 hours shall be given for the purpose of electing officer bearers and that the election of officer bearers shall not even with the consent of all members, be held without such notice having been given.

II. Manner in which notice shall be given:-

2.(a) The notice of every meeting under bye-laws shall state the place, date and hours fixed for it and shall be signed by the President, Vice-President and Executive Officer.

(b) The notice shall be accompanied by a list duly attested by the Executive Officer setting for the business to be transacted at the meeting hereinafter called "Agenda".

(c) The agenda shall include every matter that any member may desire to put to the meeting, provided that a copy of motion hereon is signed by such member and by a seconder is delivered to the Executive Officer at the Nagar Panchayat Office at least seven clear days before the date of meeting.

(d) The notice and Agenda shall be dispatched so that at least one clear day for a meeting that is deemed to be urgent and three clear days for any other meeting shall intervene between the date of dispatch and the date of the meeting; Provided that notice of not less than 48 hours shall be given for the purpose of electing officer bearers and that the election of officer bearers shall not even with consent of all member be held without such having been given.

3. Notice of an adjourn meeting shall be given by the Chairman at the spot and the same shall as soon thereafter as possible be sent to all members of the committee, who are absent; provided that it shall be lawful for the President or in his absence the Vice-President to alter with due notice, on an emergency the place and hours of such meeting.

4. All cases on the Agenda of a meeting shall be made available in Executive Officer's for the inspection of members, immediately after the dispatch of the Agenda.

III. Quorum:

5. No business shall be transacted at an ordinary or special meeting of the committee unless at least one third or one half the total members or members actually serving at the time are present, respectively.

6. In the absence of a quorum the Chairman shall forthwith suspend the proceedings and adjourn meeting.

IV. Conduct, Proceeding and Adjournment of meeting:

7. Every meeting shall commence with a motion by Chairman that the minutes of the previous meeting be confirmed. Such minutes shall ordinarily be taken as read, but if for any reasons they have not been previously circulated to the members they shall be read before they are taken into consideration. Any member who was present at the previous meeting may object to the confirmation of the minutes by moving an amendment on the ground that any matter is correctly recorded or expressed.

8. The Chairman shall decide all points of order or procedure and his decision shall be final, whenever he raises any member speaking shall resume his seat. The Chairman after finishing his say shall allow the member to finish the speech.

9. The items of the Agenda shall be dealt within their order; provided that the Chairman with the consent of majority of the members present may vary such order or bring before the meeting any matter including in the Agenda.

10. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the Chairman shall name the member who is to speak.

11. Members when speaking shall stand and address the Chairman and except on a point of order or personal explanation, the member speaking shall not be interrupted by any member other than the Chairman.

12. No written speeches shall be delivered.

13. So far as is possible and consistent with the matter under discussion, no member shall direct personal or objectionable remarks at any other member. For the purpose of the bye-law the ruling of the Chairman shall be final.

14. A member desiring to raise point of order or personal explanation shall rise and address the Chairman. The member speaking shall then give way and remain seated until the Chairman has decided the point raised; provided that the Chairman may permit any member including the member called to order to speak on the said point.

15. If the member refuse to obey the ruling of the Chairman on any matter, he may adjourn it at once and he declares the meeting adjourned on this or any ground, the subsequent proceedings of the meeting or any residue thereof shall be void and shall not appear in the minutes.

16. The Chairman may, after calling the attention of the meeting to the conduct of a member who persist in irrelevant or in tedious repetition or his own argument used by the member direct him to discontinue his speech.
